Keeping up to date

A database search will pull together all journals by a particular publisher e.g. Informaworld (Taylor & Francis) (www.informaworld.com) or journals from a variety of publishers in a specific field e.g. Academic Search Premier for Higher Education journals.

Tip: Check with your subject librarian to find out what databases your library holds.

FIND OUT MORE

Tip: Don’t confine yourself. General Higher Education journals and discipline specific journals will also include articles relevant to teaching practice.

Tip: Choose the subject librarians to get an overview of what databases your library holds.

Databases covering higher education include:

» ACADEMIC SEARCH PREMIER
Titles covered include:
» Teaching in Higher Education
» Teaching Science
